DOES YOUR CHURCH NEED INSPIRATION?

I partner with churches for 3 straight weeks to provide pastors and members with creative ways to engage with the message and their callings.

WHAT

I'm Ross Boone. I've written for Focus on the Family, Our Daily Bread, and have written and published 5 books.

WHO

I've done illustration work for Home Depot, Delta, Chick-fil-A, Andy Stanley, Coca-Cola, and others.

I struggled with doubt but that pushed me to find creative answers. I graduated Seminary and now my mission is to use my art and writing to draw questioning Christians closer to their creator.

And I teach others how to use their creative gifts to pursue their own calling.

RAW SPOON CONFERENCE

The conference for creative Christian engagement.

The conference comes to you.

HOW I do this by creating art and writings that foster deeper engagement in the church services, also by facilitating workshops and meetings to help others utilize their giftings for a purpose.

WHY The workshops empower creatives looking for their calling, and they foster new affinity groups. The art/writing inspires deeper engagement. Mission Maps help individuals and the church identify calling. Each are also great opportunities for outreach.

$$ Base price for three 40-hour work weeks is $3500.

Services for

PASTORS

SKETCH-NOTES OF SERMONS

I sketch the notes of the sermon in a visual format for easier comprehension and memory. Made available to congregation.

ART INSPIRED BY SERVICES

I create custom art prints inspired by the service. These can be printed on canvas, stickers, or can be framed and distributed to congregation. Or applied as murals.

WRITTEN PIECES INSPIRED BY SERVICES

I write blogs and short stories to inspire deeper engagement with the message.

PREACHING

I preach on living life devoted to a Biblical purpose, instead of the typical American Dream, and I give tools to help find that purpose. Content comes from my book "Millennial Monk".

CHURCH MISSION MAPPING

I interview church leaders and members for their skills, passions and struggles to hone identity and direction for the church.

GRAPHICS AND BRANDING

I can do graphics and branding work.

BOOTH OF ART AND BOOKS IN LOBBY

I place a display of my art and books available in a common area.
